

Jack M. Nunnery
Senior Vice President
National Sales Manager, Warehouse Lending Division

Joining Texas Capital Bank in 2009, Jack Nunnery manages and develops the regional sales team and associated support infrastructure for the bank's Warehouse Lending Division. He leads the charge in extending warehouse facilities to a national, middle-market clientele with lines from $5 million to $30 million. He also serves as business lead for implementation of end-to-end technology solutions for clients.

A tech-savvy senior executive with 25 years' experience, Jack has managed diverse efforts for organizations ranging from large multi-channel mortgage aggregators to innovative service/technology providers in LOS, settlement and post-closing markets.